MUKHARRAM ALI (1913) NATIONAL HERO OF LIBYA
 AND MEMBER OF THE SUBMISSION OF RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATION WITH ADMINISTRATIVE AND MILITARY
 FUNCTIONS LED THE ANTI-COLONIAL RESISTANCE IN CIRENAICA
 FROM 1923 TO 1931, WHEN HE WAS CAPTURED BY THE ITALIANS AND CONDEMNED TO DEATH.

When the Italians openly attacked Libya in the Spring of 1923, Omar was among the most competent and active figures in organizing
 and coordinating the resistance.
 In his capacity as representative of the tribes he had assumed command of the guerrilla forces that often baffled and confounded the regular Italian forces.
